Orland Township Seniors Celebrate Valentine's Day

(Orland Township, IL – Feb. 6, 2019) - More than 100 Orland Township seniors enjoyed an afternoon of Italian food, entertainment and good company at Orland Township's Valentine's Day Senior Luncheon, according to the Office of Orland Township Supervisor Paul O'Grady.

Guests dined on a variety of Italian favorites catered by Frankie's Ristorante in Tinley Park and were entertained by the hits of Frank Sinatra, Dean Martin and the Rat Pack, to name a few, as performed by local musician James Libera.

"Senior luncheons are just one of the many activities Orland Township provides for senior citizens to participate in throughout the year," said Supervisor O'Grady. "It's always great to see everyone enjoying the afternoon."

The March senior luncheon will be a St. Patrick's / St. Joe's celebration that will have a traditional Irish menu that includes corned beef and cabbage. Tickets are available at the Orland Township Office, 14807 S. Ravinia Ave., Orland Park. For more information call the township at (708) 403-4222.
