Orland Township Holding "Casting Call" for Senior Dating Game

(Orland Township, IL – July 19, 2019) - Senior bachelors and bachelorettes who are looking for companionship and are willing to do it blindly in front of a live audience are invited to try out for Orland Township's Senior Dating Game, according to the office of Orland Township Supervisor Paul O'Grady.

Modeled after the hit television game show "The Dating Game," contestants will be escorted to private screening rooms before appearing on stage to be asked a variety of questions by a potential match. Winning couples will be treated to a complimentary night on the town.

The casting call for Orland Township's Senior Dating Game will take place at the Township office, 14807 S. Ravinia Ave., Orland Park on Tuesday, Aug. 6. Men should arrive at 6:30 p.m., women should arrive at 7:30 p.m.

Contestants must be age 55 or better and must pre-register by calling Orland Township at (708) 403-4222.

"Orland Township's Senior Dating Game is one of our more popular senior events," said Township Supervisor Paul O'Grady. "I encourage our adventurous seniors who may be looking for a new flame or friend to try out at our casting call."

Orland Township's Senior Dating Game will take place on Thursday, Oct. 3 at Orland Chateau. Tickets are $20 and will go on sale Aug. 26 at the Township office. Proceeds from the event benefits the Orland Township Scholarship Foundation.

For more information or to register for the casting call, contact Orland Township at (708) 403-4222.
