(Orland Township, IL – Aug. 5, 2019) - Are you a senior who likes to move and groove and would like to compete for a mirror ball trophy? If so, Orland Township Supervisor Paul O'Grady invites you to an open audition for Dancing with the Senior Stars of Orland Township.

Singles and couples of all dance skill levels are invited to tryout but must be age 55 or better. During the auditions, competitors needing a partner will be paired one, and all dancing teams will be guided by a professional dance coach.

Auditions for Orland Township's Dancing with the Senior Stars will take place on Tuesday, Sept. 3, at 6 p.m. at Arthur Murray Dance Center, 16131 S. LaGrange Rd., Orland Park.

Senior dancers chosen to compete in the eighth annual Dancing with the Senior Stars of Orland Township will train with a professional Arthur Murray dance instructor to prepare for the live show.

Contestants must pre-register by calling Orland Township at (708) 403-4222.

"Orland Township provides many opportunities for our seniors to get out and show off their talents," said Supervisor O'Grady. "Dancing with the Senior Stars of Orland Township is one of our events that has grown in popularity each year and I encourage seniors who are interested to tryout for the show."

Orland Township's Dancing with the Senior Stars will take place on Thursday, Nov. 14 at Georgios Banquets. Tickets are $30 and go on sale Sept. 19. Dinner and cash bar are included with the show. Proceeds from the event benefits the Orland Township Scholarship Foundation.
