ORLAND TOWNSHIP RECOGNIZES HOLIDAY PROGRAM DONORS

Certificates of Appreciation were handed out at the Orland Township February Board meeting to several groups who donated to the 2017 Orland Township Holiday Program, according to the Office of Orland Township Supervisor Paul O'Grady.

More than 100 groups and individuals contributed to the holiday program. During the February Orland Township Board Meeting, nine of those individuals attended and Supervisor O'Grady personally presented the certificates to those individuals, thanking them for helping to make the program a success.

"Our holiday program has been assisting families in the community for more than 30 years," said Supervisor O'Grady. "It's because of the generosity of these individuals that this tradition continues, ensuring that more than 150 families had a Merry Christmas this past year."

Those in attendance who received certificates were:

- Boy Scout Troop 318
- Edwards Realty
- Kiwanis
- Lions Club of Orland Park
- Mackey's Pub
- Midas
- Presbyterian Church of Orland Park
- Southwest Community Concert Bank
- John and Carolyn Rudniski
