Orland Township Seniors Receive Festive Send-Off on Holiday Trolley Trip

Guests going on the Orland Township Holiday Lights trolley trip were surprised by a visit from and festive send off by Santa, Mrs. Claus and their dog Blue.

Nearly 200 Orland Township senior citizens boarded six trolleys and headed off to Chicago for this annual Township holiday tradition. Township seniors enjoyed holiday lights and Chicago's skyline as the trolleys took them to the Adler Planetarium, down the Magnificent Mile in Chicago's Gold Coast before arriving at Lincoln Park Zoo, where they exited the trolleys for a self-guided walk around the grounds to see the impressive Zoo Lights display.

"The Township's Holiday Lights trolley trip provides seniors a festive and fun evening with friends, enjoying some beautiful light displays in Chicago," said Orland Township Supervisor Paul O'Grady. "It is one of our most popular trips and we're happy so many of our seniors take advantage of it."

The Orland Township Holiday Lights Trolley Trip took place on Friday, December 7, departing and returning to the Township office, 14807 S. Ravinia Ave., Orland Park.
