Due to current IDPH guidelines, senior luncheons were cancelled on Nov. 13.

Orland Township to Host Senior Luncheons

Tickets go on sale Nov. 4

Orland Township's popular senior luncheons are returning, starting with the Thanksgiving luncheon in mid-November followed by the holiday luncheon in early December, according to the office of Orland Township Supervisor Paul O'Grady.

The format, location and capacity limits will change, due to pandemic social distancing requirements and masks will be required when guests are away from their tables and not eating or drinking.

Both luncheons will be held at the Orland Chateau, 14500 S. LaGrange Rd., Orland Park and will feature plated meals that include soup, salad and entertainment.

The November luncheon will be held on Thursday, Nov. 19 and will consist of a plated, traditional turkey feast and feature the entertainment of local singer Blake Alexander. A performer since childhood, Alexander's shows cover a range from Frank Sinatra to Maroon 5 and everything in between.

A plated roast beef meal will be served at December's luncheon, which will be held on Thursday, Dec. 3. Local crooner Nino Folino will entertain guests with his renditions of the music of Frank Sinatra, Dean Martin and more.

"Our luncheons are a popular social activity for our seniors," said Supervisor O'Grady. "We are happy to be able to host them again, following CDC guidelines, and provide an afternoon of socializing and entertainment after this long and difficult year."

Township luncheons are limited to Orland Township residents, 55 and older, proof of residency is required when purchasing tickets. Tickets for both luncheons go on sale on Wednesday, Nov. 4 at 8 a.m. at the Township office, 14807 S. Ravinia Ave., Orland Park and are $20 each.

Luncheons will follow CDC guidelines with seating limited to 100 guests at each luncheon. Attendees are required to wear masks except when eating or drinking. Tables will be spaced for social distancing and will have no more than six individuals at a table. Both luncheons are scheduled from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m., with doors opening at 10 a.m.
