

Proactive Disclosure of Public Records

Orland Township makes certain public records and information available without the need to file a Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request. The information and records presented on this website are considered public information, and the information is being provided online as a public service and as part of the Township's commitment to a proactive approach to information disclosure under the Freedom of Information Act. Every effort is made to provide accurate and complete information. However, with the amount of documents made routinely available for public inspection, the Township cannot guarantee that there will be no errors. The records may include inaccuracies or typographical errors and may be changed or updated without notice. Portions of such information may be incorrect or not current. The records are being provided "AS IS" and neither the Township, nor any department, officer or employee of Orland Township warrants the accuracy, reliability or timeliness of any information or documents published, nor endorses any content, viewpoints, products or services identified or described in the documents and shall not be held liable for any losses caused by reliance on the accuracy, reliability or timeliness of such information or records. Neither the Township nor its employees and officers make any warranty, express or implied, or statutory, including but not limited to warranties of non-infringement of third party rights, title and the warranties of merchantability and fitness for a particular purpose with respect to content available from Orland Township's website. Any person or entity that relies on any information obtained from these records does so at his or her own risk.
